CHOREO

Choreo is a dance event which features contemporary dance performances by teams from colleges around the country. This event is conducted in the central auditorium. After the initial elimination round, about six to eight teams are shortlisted for the final round. The final round features contemporary dance performances that are usually based on a certain theme.

RULEBOOK

STREET DANCE

As the name suggests, Street Dance is a street-style dance event which features performances by teams from colleges around the country. Street Dance is considered a crowd favorite and is held in the Rotunda, the open-air amphitheater of BITS. The first stage consists of 2 rounds; a performance and a battle round. From this, 4 teams are selected for the second stage. The second stage is a face-off challenge between pairs of teams. These pairs are allotted randomly.

RULEBOOK

DESERT DUEL

It is a solo dance event in which dancers from every college participate and showcase their talent. Depending on the dancer, styles can vary from western to classical to hip-hop and even to the typical Bollywood style.

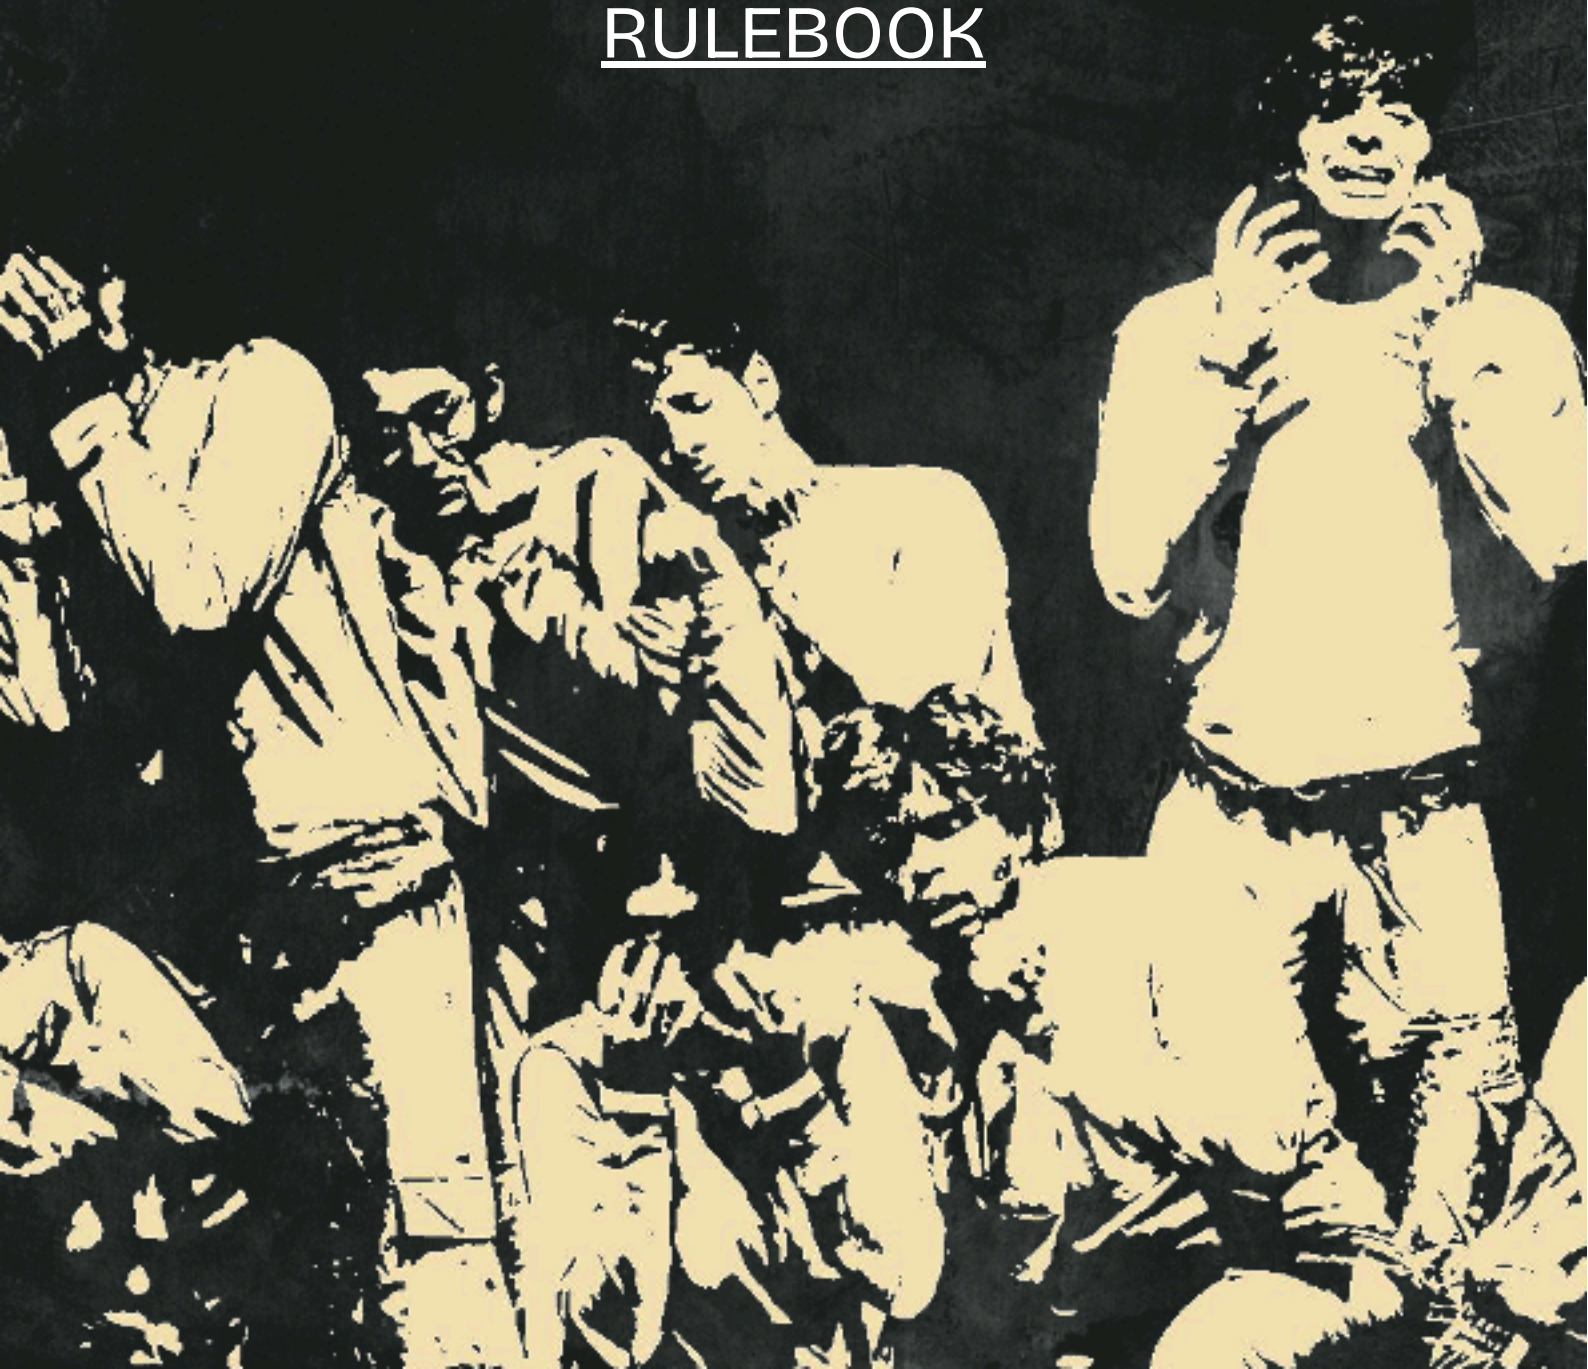

RULEBOOK

RAZZMATAZZ

Razzmatazz is a one-of-its-kind group dance competition that tests finesse and artistry in showcasing coordinated group choreographies. With equal weightage in judgement given to execution, presentation and creativity, it is fashioned to test the esprit de corps of the participating teams. All forms of dance including fusions are allowed. So trip the light fantastic toe and let there be a razzle-dazzle of sheer splendor.

RULEBOOK

TANDAV

Tandav Solo is Oasis' flagship Indian classical dance competition, a stage where tradition meets artistry in its purest form. Solo performers from across the nation gather to showcase the rich heritage of Indian classical dance, captivating audiences with their grace, rhythm, precision, and storytelling. The event not only highlights technical mastery but also celebrates the depth of expression and the spiritual essence embedded in classical forms. As one of the most anticipated cultural events of Oasis, Tandav Solo provides a platform for young artists to carry forward centuries-old traditions while bringing their unique interpretations to the stage, making it both a competition and a tribute to the timeless beauty of Indian classical dance.
